

ANGLO-AMERICKA VYSOKA SKOLA, Z.U.

- Respect in full the principles of non-discrimination, transparency and inclusion set out in the Erasmus+ Programme.
- Ensure equal and equitable access and opportunities to current and prospective participants from all backgrounds, paying particular attention to the inclusion of those with fewer opportunities.
- Ensure full automatic recognition of all credits (based on the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System – ECTS) gained for learning outcomes satisfactorily achieved during a period of study/training abroad, including during blended mobility.
- Charge no fees, in the case of credit mobility, to incoming mobile students for tuition, registration, examinations or access to laboratory and library facilities.
- Ensure the quality of the mobility activities and of the cooperation projects throughout the application and implementation phases.
- Implement the priorities of the Erasmus+ Programme:
 - By undertaking the necessary steps to implement digital mobility management in line with the technical standards of the European Student Card Initiative.
 - By promoting environmentally friendly practices in all activities related to the Programme.
 - By encouraging the participation of individuals with fewer opportunities in the Programme.
 - By promoting civic engagement and encouraging students and staff to get involved as active citizens before, during and after their participation in a mobility activity or cooperation project.

WHEN PARTICI

- Integrate incoming mobile participants into the wider student community and into the institution's everyday life. Encourage them to act as ambassadors of the Erasmus+ programme and share their mobility experience.

After mobility

- Provide incoming mobile students and their receiving institutions with transcripts of records containing an accurate and timely record of their achievements at the end of the mobility period.
- Ensure that all ECTS credits gained for learning outcomes satisfactorily achieved during a period of study/training abroad, including during blended mobility, are fully and automatically recognised as agreed in the learning agreement and confirmed by the transcript of records and certificate; transfer those credits without delay into the student's records upon their return to the institution's system without any additional work or assessment of the student and make them readily available to the student's institution in the Diploma Supplement.
- Ensure that incoming mobile participants are supported in becoming mobile ambassadors of the institution's everyday life.
- Encourage and support mobile participants upon return to act as ambassadors of the Erasmus+ Programme, promote the benefits of mobility and actively engage in building alumni communities.
- Ensure that staff is given recognition for their teaching and training activities undertaken during the mobility period, as set out in the mobility agreement, and in line with the institution's strategy.

WHEN PARTICIPATING IN EUROPEAN AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION PROJECTS

- Ensure that cooperation activities contribute towards the fulfilment of the institution's strategy.
- Promote the opportunities offered by the cooperation projects and provide relevant support to staff and students interested in participating in these activities throughout the application and implementation phases.
- Encourage that cooperation designed to deliver outcomes and that their impact reaches all partners.
- Encourage peer-learning activities and exhibition of results of such projects in a way that will maximise their impact on individuals, other participating institutions and the wider academic community.

FOR THE PURPOSES OF IMPLEMENTATION

- Ensure that the language institutional strategy and its relevance to the objectives and priorities of the Erasmus+ Programme are described in the Erasmus Policy Statement.
- Ensure that the principles of the Charter are well communicated and are applied by staff at all levels of the Institution.
- Undertake institutional self-evaluation and submit the ECHE Self-assessment to enable full implementation of the principles of this Charter.
- Regularly promote activities supported by the Erasmus+ using various means.
- Display this Charter and the related Erasmus+ Policy Statement prominently on the Institution's website and on other relevant channels.

The Institution acknowledges that the implementation of the Charter will be monitored by the Erasmus+ National Agency and that the violation of any of the core principles and commitments set forth in this Charter will be reported to the European Commission.
